

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has eliminated all calls I rcv at my residence. The state law is very important to me because it has been so effective. I encourage a federal standing for the fact that other states do not have any no call lists, but to take away what we as voters worked so hard for her in Indiana will not be tolorted.